

JOHNNY'S LETTER

new york—once there used to be a time when hired gurls in this town was afraid to leev there jobs unless the lady wood give them a rekom-mendashun

if they didnt have that they coodent get another job but now it is different the ladies have to have them there was a gurl named kate who was fired by a swell dame on 67th street and the dame was mad at her so she says i wout give you no rekom-mendashun, & kate says stick your old rekom-mendashun in your eye so kate goes out to the hiring agencies & tells all the other girls waitin for jobs dont work for her she is too meen to her help when the dame telefoned down for another gurl the manadger says no gurl will work for you & she says why he says kate has been down heer given them an earful that made her sore so she had kate pinched for saying things about her & the judge he cant do nothing & let kate go & then the rich woman was glad to give her a rekom-mendashun and kate lifted the imbargo from the lady's house so she cood hire another gurl!

that is verry tuff on the rich wim-men because if they dont treat there hired gurls rite they cant get no more gurls to work for them but i shoold worry.

—O—O—TRUTHFUL

He—I could die dancing with you.
She—I am.

CHESTNUT CHARLIE

WELL, I GOT A SWELL HUNCH
FOR T'DAY—WOW—
OH BABY!!

'LET'S SEE NOW—
OH—YEAH!!

GOSH, TH' GENERAL WILL RAISE
ME WHEN HE GETS A PEEK
AT THIS ONE!!

SEE—WHY IS A NANS WINDPIPE
LIKE A SERIAL STORY?
GET IT?

BECAUSE IT IS CONTINUED IN OUR NECKS!!

—O—O—PROOF

Willie—Mother, didn't you say it would make baby sick if I gave him
all his medicine at once?

Mother—I certainly did.

Willie—But, mother dear, it hasn't.
—Puck.